

New student position at the Academy of the Cyprus Youth Symphony Orchestra

Announcement

The Cyprus Symphony Orchestra Foundation, announces 10 new student positions for the Academy of the Cyprus Youth Symphony Orchestra.

Selected students will receive a partial scholarship that includes tutoring on one of the following music instruments, under the guidance of highly-qualified teachers. The monthly tuition fees corresponding to each scholar for 2024 amount to 80 euros per month and the period of the lessons is between September and May. The lessons take place in all cities of Cyprus and the enrolment in the Academy is subject to the Academy's rules and regulations.

Scholarships:

1 for Violin, 2 for Viola, 1 for Flute, 1 for Clarinet, 3 for French Horn, 1 for Trombone and 1 for Tuba.

Candidates should not be older than 8 for strings, and not older than 10 for winds (exc. Tuba – 12), and previous experience in a music instrument is not necessary. However, the youngest appropriate age for each instrument and the ability to adjust to the tutoring at the earliest time possible, will be considered among the candidates for each instrument.

You are kindly requested to fill-in the online registration form by clicking on this link http://www.cyso.org.cy/?page_id=2275 no later than January 28th 2024, along with your preferred instrument and any previous experience if and where applicable.

The interviews will take place on the 10th of February 2024 at the Acropolis Lyceum in Nicosia between 10:00 – 19:00 (no other arrangements will be made), and the selection will be carried by a committee headed by the CyYSO heads of departments, the inspector and the Artistic Director. An instrument other than the candidate's selection may be proposed in case the committee decides so. No preparation is required. The exact time will be sent to each candidate individually by the 6th of February 2024.
